

Falkland Islands Government

Report for suspected disease outbreak in wild birds

Please send completed reports to by email to Veterinary Services:
tross@naturalresources@gov.fk

Please make an initial phone call to the Veterinary Services in Stanley: 27366, or out of hours 55366

- Report Details

Reporter's Name	Date of the visit:	Time of the visit:
Location of Event	GPS Latitude/longitude	General description settlement/island/beach
General observations and reasons for concern
Length of observation and distance from wildlife
Phone Number
Email address

- Event Details

Primary species affected:		Secondary species affected:
Numbers Adults Dead / sick showing signs of bird flu		Numbers Adults Dead / sick showing signs of bird flu
Numbers Chicks Dead / sick showing signs of bird flu		Numbers Chicks Dead / sick showing signs of bird flu
What is the general behaviour of the birds where observations took place – e.g. feeding chicks, resting, moving to/from colony		What is the general behaviour of the birds where observations took place – e.g. feeding chicks, resting, moving to/from colony
% of colony affected		% of colony affected:
Number of colonies		Number of colonies
Photos and video attached (Yes/No)
Any additional relevant information (environmental conditions etc)
Date of symptoms/ first death?
When did you last visit site?

- Land Use

Tourist location, farmed or other site use
How is the site accessed? Overland, walking, boat access
Who is the land owner?	